Our Values

---

In everything we do at Inside Travel Group, we strive to deliver a Quality and Friendly service with Integrity, Determination and Passion using our collective Knowledge. This is at the heart of the organisation, and the company looks for every individual to demonstrate this daily. Each member of the team is expected to exemplify the company values through their work and professional conduct. We expect everyone to set an example to those around them and to be conscious that they are representing the company when working with customers and partner organisations.

Our Culture

---

You'll be part of a fun, friendly team of employees, all of whom share a passion for our destinations, a belief in our brands and a strong collective sense of values and purpose. Our work culture is supportive, creative and dedicated, and it's at its best when we all try to lead by example; the more you put in, the more you and the team get out, and it'll be important that you play your part.

Job Purpose

---

Our Senior Travel Consultants are responsible for converting as many suitable enquiries to bookings as possible, creating fantastic trips and offering customer service that exceeds client expectations to ultimately maximise repeat business and personal recommendations.

The Role

---

As the first port of call for our leads, you'll ensure a winning first impression, seeking to establish trust and build rapport with your clients from the very beginning. Responding to incoming enquiries, you'll work with your clients to create a high-quality proposal based on your expert knowledge of our product offering and your personal experience. You'll provide exceptional customer service to every client whether they decide to travel with us or not, working quickly and responsively from the initial enquiry, the booking stage and through to the return from their trip.

You'll work with both direct clients and trade partners in this role, delivering our trademark friendly service using exceptional communication skills over the phone, by email, in person and via video, flexing your style to suit the individual.

Being highly organised, you'll ensure all enquiries and client questions are responded to quickly, and make sure any information or documents a client might need at any stage of their interaction with us are received in a timely manner to a high standard. Your capacity to manage competing tasks and ability to prioritise effectively will be crucial in this role. While the reservations process will mostly be handled by our Booking Delivery Team, you will be accountable for the overall client experience and satisfaction.

As a Senior Travel Consultant, we'll expect you to be consistently smashing your sales targets, converting enquiries at a high rate with a healthy profit margin. You'll routinely put your sales experience and expansive destination knowledge to good use, taking on a wide range of enquiries, including high-end and logistically complex which may require you to research more unusual suggestions and be more creative to put together the best trip for your clients. You'll demonstrate a professional and proactive approach, acting as a role-model, mentor and peer support to more junior members of the team on both destination knowledge and sales skills. You'll strive to require minimal management support, be self-motivated, and will continually reflect on your own performance and personal development to stay ahead of the game.

Who you will be working with

You will work within a small team of Travel Consultants, led by a Sales Team Leader, to share knowledge, advice and guidance, providing coaching and mentorship to junior colleagues within the sales team.
