Our Values

In everything we do at Inside Travel Group, we strive to deliver a Quality and Friendly service with Integrity, Determination and Passion using our collective Knowledge. This is at the heart of the organisation, and the company looks for every individual to demonstrate this daily. Each member of the team is expected to exemplify the company values through their work and professional conduct. We expect everyone to set an example to those around them and to be conscious that they are representing the company when working with customers and partner organisations.

Our Culture

You'll be part of a fun, friendly team of employees, all of whom share a passion for our destinations, a belief in our brands and a strong collective sense of values and purpose. Our work culture is supportive, creative and dedicated, and it's at its best when we all try to lead by example; the more you put in, the more you and the team get out, and it'll be important that you play your part.

Job Purpose

As a Travel Consultant, you will be responsible for converting as many suitable enquiries to bookings as possible, creating fantastic trips and offering customer service that exceeds client expectations to ultimately maximise repeat business and personal recommendations.

The Role

As the first port of call for our leads, you'll ensure a winning first impression, seeking to establish trust and build rapport with your clients from the very beginning. Responding to incoming leads, you'll work with your clients to create a high-quality proposal based on your expert knowledge of our product offering and your personal experience. You'll provide exceptional customer service to every client whether they decide to travel with us or not, working quickly and responsively from the initial enquiry, the booking stage and through to the return from their trip.

You'll work with both direct clients and trade partners delivering our trademark friendly service using exceptional communication skills over the phone, by email, in person and via video, flexing your style to suit the individual.

Being highly organised, you'll ensure all enquiries and client questions are responded to quickly, and make sure any information or documents a client might need at any stage of their interaction with us are received in a timely manner to a high standard. Your capacity to manage competing tasks and ability to prioritise effectively will be crucial in this role. While the reservations process will mostly be handled by our Booking Delivery Team, you will be accountable for the overall client experience and satisfaction.

While you'll initially specialise in Japan, you'll have the opportunity to expand your repertoire to other destinations in Asia (including Indochina, South Korea, Malaysia, Borneo and Thailand), with full training given, as you progress within the role.
